Elevate Your Everyday Flow

About Us

With decades of exploration in the field of sanitaryware, we have ambitions to become the industry benchmark in China and even the world. Cerafield's origins can be traced back to the founding of Ceramate in 1983 in Taiwan as an agent of ceramic equipment and raw materials. In a constant search for change, we made our first transition in the early 1990s with the establishment of Futon, a factory specializing in the production of ceramic sanitaryware and tableware.

We have never stopped evolving, and in 2006 we established Cerafield, which not only marked a new venture in the sanitaryware sector, but also officially launched our involvement in supply chain management related to sanitaryware exports. These decades of successful export experience have given us the ambition to build and promote our brand worldwide.

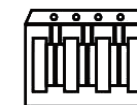

Why Cerafield?

Cerafield is committed to providing the best bathroom solutions for every customer. The unique combination of European design and Chinese manufacturing guarantees exceptional quality at each stage, from design and development to the final shipment to consumers.

Sustainable Technology

The new vortex flushing technology converts the energy of the water tank into the best flushing effect, achieving 360° comprehensive cleaning.

360° VORTEX FLUSHING SYSTEM

Half moon shaped rinse board, with smoother and softer exterior lines, giving it a more aesthetic feel. A complete vortex flushing system is formed by combining 9 and a half month diversion holes and 1 vortex outlet, which conducts 360° scouring on the inner wall of the toilet, forming vortices to remove dirt, quickly generating siphons to enhance impulse, and making it more silent and water-saving.

RIMLESS

The design of the new frameless system solves the traditional problem of blind spots on the edge of rinsing, making it no longer difficult to reach or clean, reducing bacterial growth, and strengthening the protection of household hygiene and health issues.
